

Jerome Westheimer
CENTER for the PERFORMING ARTS

Dear Friends,

As Executive Director of The Jerome Westheimer Center for the Performing Arts, it is my great pleasure to invite you to the remaining events of our inaugural season. This season has already showcased the talents of National Geographic Explorers, Broadway veterans, and even Grammy Award Winners. As proud as we are of the performances we've already hosted, they are simply a portion of our season.

Upcoming events in our state-of-the-art facility include Mannheim Steamroller Christmas (yes...that Mannheim Steamroller), Momix: Alice (A contemporary dance performance of Alice in Wonderland), and the Merlin Award winning illusionist, Rob Lake. These are just part of our extraordinary Spring Season.

We offer a variety of ticketing options to best suit your needs. You can secure season tickets for our entire remaining slate of four shows for as little as $130 or select individual performances for as little as $15. All without having to travel outside of our incredible community.

Additionally, for those looking to make a lasting impact and support the arts, we are excited to offer naming rights opportunities for businesses and individuals. Your financial commitment to our enduring success for future generations comes with leveled benefits that may include, but are not limited to, public recognition, advertisement in our programs, and even complimentary season tickets.

It was discovered in a recent study that when people share in the viewing of a live performance their heartbeats synchronize. We look forward to welcoming you to The Westheimer in the near future in hopes to share a heartbeat with you.

For more information on purchasing tickets or naming rights, visit our website at ardmorearts.org, or call the box office at (580) 221-3080.

With heartfelt thanks,
Nick Gelona
